

Deaths.

In Goshen, (N. J.) the Rev. Nathaniel Kerr, aged 68—In Norwich, Mr. Levi Luther, aged 72—In Worcester, Mr. William M. Farland, aged 88—In Brookfield, Mrs.
Sarah Merriam, aged 26, consort of Mr. Ebenezer M.— In Hanover, (N. H.) Mrs. Hannah Fuller, aged 64, wife of dea. Caleb F.—In Portsmouth, Mrs. Alice Safford, aged 26; Mr. John Long.—In Gloucester, capt. Thomas Pillow, aged 33—In Haverhill, Mrs. Lydia Hofstma.

In Haverhill, on Thursday morning, of a paralytic shock, the Rev. Hezekiah Smith, D. D. pastor of a Baptist church in that town, aged 67. His family, his flock, and the public, have sustained a very great loss by the death of this excellent man; whose life, from his youth, has been devoted to the service of his country, and the interests of religion. His funeral will be this day, precisely at 3 o'clock, P. M.; which his friends and acquaintance are desired to attend.

In Dorchester, Mr. John Mins, aged 74. His funeral will be this day, at 1 o'clock, from his late dwelling-house — which the relations and friends are requested to attend.

In Charlestown, on Thursday morning, Thomas Marchmont, esq. aged 65; Consul of his Britannic Majesty, for the Eastern Department of the United States. His funeral will be at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

In this town, on Thursday evening, Elizabeth Edwards, aged 17 years, daughter of Thomas Edwards, esq.