always be guarded against an opinion that is grounded on popularity, or temporal case ; for it is here those truths have been called in question, which the voice of the apostles proclaimed, the blood of martyrs witnessed, the mariculous credentials of heaven proved, reason confirmed, the world witnessed, & even devils confessed. O, brethren, on these blessed truths stand fast and firm in the blessed cause of Jesus, as good soldiers fight the battles of the Lord with courage, his word cannot fail—a few remarks to our brethren in general who have professed to be the followers of Christ ; remember, if we are in Christ we are under his laws—which strictly demand our obedience—the very essence of that Law is love—Love to Christ and love to the brethren—let each learn that there is no useless member in the house of God,—therefore Dear Brethren, let us strive to bear in mind our ministering brethren, feel for them, and sympathise with them in their difficulties and trials ; remember when the hands of Moses were supported, Israel prevailed, hath the Lord called our brethren to preach the gospel, his will is certainly that they shall live through certain means,—therefore let us be guarded against the omission of our duty, as God hath pleased to plant us together in churches, let us strive to be useful members of his house ; bearing each others burthens, and so fulfil the law of Christ ; may the God of peace through his spirit of grace, reign, and govern your hearts, and guide you in his truths is the prayers of your brethren.

GEORGE WALLER, Mod.

WM. FORD, Clerk.
