THURSDAY, October 7.

MET pursuant to adjournment.

A sermon was delivered this morning by brother Caleb Blood, from Deut. xxxiii. 3.

1. Received a letter from the Woodstock association, by brother Baily, their messenger; informing of the prosperity of Zion in different places.

2. Received a letter from the Philadelphian association, at their session at Newyork; by which we are informed, that they enjoy a happy establishment, and sweet union amongst their churches.

3. Voted, that it is inconsistent with the principles of this association, to read, in a public manner, any clause of a letter from any sister church, which would impeach the character of any individual brother.

4. Read and approved the circular letter prepared by brother Webb.—Read and approved the letter to the sister associations, prepared by brother Haynes.

5. Adjourned for an hour.
